

Do You Hear What I Hear?

WEEK TWO

FALLING IN LOVE WITH CHRISTMAS AGAIN

DAY SEVEN: THE SOUND OF HOPE

What does hope sound like to you?

Read Romans 8:28. Fill in the blanks.

“And we know that in _____ things God works for the _____ of those who _____ Him, who have been called according to His _____.”

Life is But a Weaving
by Corrie ten Boom

My life is but a weaving
Between my God and me.
I cannot choose the colors
He weaveth steadily.
Oft' times He weaveth sorrow;
And I in foolish pride
Forget He sees the upper
And I the underside.
Not 'til the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly
Will God unroll the canvas

And reveal the reason why.
The dark threads are as needful
In the weaver's skillful hand
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned
He knows, He loves, He cares;
Nothing this truth can dim.
He gives the very best to those
Who leave the choice to Him.

When you consider Romans 8:28 and Corrie ten Boom's poem, how are you able to see how God has used or might use the dark threads in your life as a part of your masterpiece?

Write out the words to Romans 15:13 and put them somewhere you can be reminded of the hope that overflows in you! Let the Holy Spirit weave them into your heart and mind so that it becomes the lens you see the world through.
